DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-6 and 22, drawn to a pouch machine, classified in class 493, subclass 3.
 - II. Claims 7 and 8, drawn to a pouch machine, classified in class 700, subclass 82.
 - III. Claim 9, drawn to a method of operating a controller, classified in class 700, subclass 95.
 - IV. Claim 10-16, drawn to a pouch machine, classified in class 493, subclass 11.
 - V. Claims 17-20, drawn to a pouch machine, classified in class 493, subclass 18.
 - VI. Claims 21-25, drawn to a pouch machine, classified in class 493, subclass 20.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions III and (I, II & IV-VI) are related as process and apparatus for its practice.

The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus such as a computer.

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the controller of the combination is cable of controlling each of the individual modules. The subcombination has separate utility such as each individual module connected to a respective converting station sequentially receiving operating parameters from an upstream module in order to operate the respective converting station.

Inventions (I & II) and (IV-VI) are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the controller of the combination does not need sensor for controlling the modules. The subcombination has separate utility such as sensing the registration along the film path.

Inventions IV and V are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not need more than two processing zones. The subcombination has separate utility such as making pouches form more than two processing zone.

Inventions (IV & V) and VI are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the drawroll of the combination does not need to be controlled by a controller. The subcombination has separate utility such as changing the direction of the drawroll using output of edge sensors.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Louis K. Huynh whose telephone number is (703) 306-5694. Any inquiry of a general nature or relating to the status of this application or proceeding should be directed to the receptionist whose telephone number is (703) 308-1148.
